Opening of New Bank Branches in Chittoor District of Andhra Pradesh

2286. SHRI MOHAN BABU: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that nationalised banks have not opened enough branches in Chittoor district of Andhra Pradesh;

(b) whether it is a fact that large areas of rural villages are without any modern banking facilities in Chittoor district; and

(c) the ratio of bank branches to population in Chittoor district of Andhra Pradesh?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (DR. BEBI PROSAD PAL): (a) There are 232 branches of commercial banks and Regional Rural Banks in Chittoor District of Andhra Pradesh. Besides these, 23 branches of the District Co-operative Centre Bank are also serving the District through 174 Primary Agricultural Cooperatives.

(b) The banking facilities of the District are adequately taken care of by these branches. Further, under the Scheme of Service Area Approach to rural lending, all the villages have been allocated to the existing branches thereby taking care of their banking needs.

(c) The average population per bank branch on the basis of number of branches of commercial banks and Regional Rural Banks is 14,000.
